Welcome

Dear Readers,

Welcome to Issue 119 of the sportanddev e-Newsletter!

Research and reporting are essential to the progress of S&D as a sector and are the focus of this issue's "Latest from the community" section. The section includes an external evaluation published on International Inspiration, the legacy programme of the London 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games, a Fare Network report on the number and type of discriminatory incidents at the recent football World Cup and Australian government research into some of its projects in the Pacific.

In the "Commentary" section, we feature two interviews. sportanddev caught up with Geert Hendriks, who explained how the AISTS masters programme can create future leaders and Elizabeth Adhiambo, who was first introduced to boxing through Boxgirls International and is now preparing to compete at the 2014 Commonwealth Games in Glasgow. Aman Dhall completes the section by sharing advice on capacity building for S&D organisations.

Finally, continuing with the theme of capacity building, check out our toolkit on the topic in "Latest from the platform".

Enjoy your reading,

Paul Hunt
